(viii) Till the time, the corporate person had not made any repayment of its financial debt and operational debts and the corporate person has not been running its business since 2012, hence, there are no means for the corporate person to repay its debts.

(ix) Board resolution dated 02.01.2023 was passed to consider and approve the proposal for initiation of CIRP for the corporate person.

(x) A Special Resolution dated 24.01.2023 was also passed by the members of the corporate person under section 10(3)(c) of the Code for the purpose of initiation of CIRP of the corporate person.

3. This Adjudicating Authority vide order dated 03.03.2023 directed the applicant to serve the notices of hearing to all the creditors of the corporate person and also to advertise notice of hearing of the application in newspapers. In compliance of the said order dated 03.03.2023, the applicant has served the notices to the creditors of the company and has also published the notice in two newspapers namely "Free Press" English Daily and "Choutha Sansar" in Hindi Daily on 25.03.2023, informing the creditors and concerned persons about the filing of the present application for initiation of CIRP against the corporate person. An affidavit of service of notice and publication is also placed on record.

4. This Adjudicating Authority vide order dated 21.09.2023, directed the applicant to furnish a list of books of accounts available with them. In compliance to that the applicant furnished the required list through an affidavit and undertook to provide the same in case the application is admitted under section 10 of the Code. Further, the applicant in compliance of the said order filed an additional affidavit bringing on record invoices available with them and submitted that the corporate applicant had stopped its business in the year 2012 and creditors are related to period prior to the year 2012, more than 11 years old and not traceable, therefore it is difficult for them to find out all the invoices of the creditors. The corporate applicant has attached 6 invoices dated 30.09.2010, 03.10.2010, 27.03.2011, 03.04.2011, 25.06.2011, and 02.11.2010 amounting to Rs. 89,75,478/-.

5. This Adjudicating Authority vide order dated 16.05.2024, directed the applicant to file a list of trade receivables. In compliance of the same, the applicant provided the list of trade receivables, the same is given as under:

6. Further, vide order dated 07.06.2024 this Adjudicating Authority noted that approximately 10.60 crores of money are to be recovered from five parties and that around 12 crores and above amount is payable to the creditors out of which about 4.70 crores are related to the group concerns. For the same, this Adjudicating Authority directed the applicant to place on record as to whether those third party creditors have taken any steps to recover any amount from the applicant and also as to what steps the applicant have taken to recover the amount which is reflected in the trade receivables in the balance sheet.

7. In this context an affidavit has been placed on record whereby the applicant has submitted the following:

- (i) In the year 2012 corporate debtor faced financial crisis leading to discontinuity of business. As the company was not able to pay its outstanding debts, bank ceased and took control of the operation of company.
- (ii) Most of the balance are related to year 2010. There was a raid of excise department and bank had sealed the premises.

(iii) In year 2012, fire broke through the factory premises of the corporate person which destroyed the raw material and finished goods including the data preserved in the factory. Most of the records and data were destroyed in the fire. Therefore, basic files having record of communication etc. was destroyed and not available with the corporate debtor. At that time the incident was reported with police, excise and other department.

(iv) After such incidence there is no communication with the parties in this regard as the business premises was destroyed and corporate person was not in a position to take recovery action against the parties.

(v) The books of accounts of the corporate person reflects the balances of the creditors acknowledging the debt. The balance sheets of the company prepared year after year also reflects the debt and as such there is no issue of limitation in filing of the application.

8. The applicant vide affidavit dated 01.03.2024 has undertook to pay the CIRP cost as well as liquidation cost, as the case may be.

9. We have heard the learned PCS appearing on behalf of the applicant on the issue of admission of application filed under section 10 of the Code and have perused the relevant records and documents. It is noted that the business operation of the corporate person ceased in year 2012 following a fire that affected the factory. The ledger accounts provided by the applicant shows that a total amount of Rs 4,20,57,394/- is outstanding towards the financial creditors and an amount of Rs 8,32,65,518/- is outstanding towards the operational creditors. The corporate person has also provided the balance sheet for the financial year 2020-21 and 2021-22, along with a provisional balance sheet for the financial year 2022-23 made up to 10.02.2023, which discloses that the corporate person has Long term borrowings of Rs 4,20,57,394/-, Trade payables of Rs 7,00,51,984/- and other current liabilities of Rs 1,36,40,318/-. Further, the corporate person has Trade receivables of Rs 10,60,41,124/-, Cash of Rs 1,22,826/- and short-term loan and advances of Rs 4,05,72,989/-. For ready reference provisional balance sheet as available on record is reproduced as under:

10. In compliance of the order dated 21.09.2023, the applicant has submitted only six invoices amounting to Rs 89,75,478/-. When inquiring about the efforts made by the applicant to recover the trade receivables amounting to ₹10,60,41,124/-, as reflected in the balance sheet, and whether the creditors of the corporate person had taken steps to recover their dues, the applicant claimed that most dues date back to 2010. The applicant further stated that due to the fire in 2012, most of the goods and records got destroyed.

11. After considering these facts and circumstances, it is clear that the corporate debtor is unable to repay its debts and has defaulted in its repayment of the debt as admitted by the corporate person and reflected in the balance sheet for the year 2020-21, 2021-22 and the provisional balance sheet for the year 2022-23. Further, the present application is well within limitation as the corporate person has been admitting and acknowledging the debt in the balance sheet year after year till 2022-23.

12. We find no defects in the present application, hence, we pass the following order:
